

The Flavors and Scents of Tuscany: Tuscan Recipes and Traditional Restaurants

Traveling foodies rejoice! Part travel guide, part cookbook, this full-color book not only shows you how to make more than 45 traditional Tuscan recipes, it also shows you where to find 35 restaurants in Tuscany that exemplify the cuisine. These 35 restaurants and trattorias were chosen for quality, location, traditional methods, and affordable price -- and not by paid advertisement. In addition, 20 recipes are paired with DOC (Controlled Designation of Origin) wines produced in the region. Each recipe includes the ingredients, directions and the history of the dish. As you flip through these pages, you will find color photographs and recipes that will tempt you to try a variety of Tuscan dishes: appetizers, first courses, second courses, side dishes and desserts. If you like cooking, you will thoroughly enjoy discovering this style of Italian cuisine and getting to know its own special nuances in your own kitchen. Or you can forget about cooking and fly right over to taste these dishes in Tuscany at trattorias and traditional Tuscan restaurants that prepare the recipes presented here! The book features lovely photos of some of the most beautiful Tuscan landmarks and street addresses and phone numbers of the restaurants. Includes a one-page color map that pinpoints the locations of the restaurants, which are listed on the opposite page. Includes a recipe index and a index of the wines.
