

Architecture of James Stirling and Michael Wilford

A study and analysis of form using the work of James Stirling as the vehicle. The text provides an approach to design by the analytical study of the buildings of Stirling presented in three-dimensional diagrammatical drawings. The chronological order of the buildings emphasizes the development of the architects work. A RIBA Gold Medalist and recipient of numerous international awards, the late Sir James Stirling's work is of international interest and the works analyzed here are drawn from the UK, Germany and USA.
